

HILLEL and KAREN ZEITLIN "A good neighbor," Pirkei Avos 2:9

Our honorees, Hillel and Karen Zeitlin, have been part of Tiferes Yisroel since the very beginning in 1986, and they have helped to shape the warm and open environment of the shul. They are known for their hospitality, opening their home to guests for Shabbos meals and lodging and for shul barbeques, women's gatherings, and melava malkas, as well as hosting the annual Simchas Beis HaShoeva. Hilly, our Gabbai Sheni, is the face of hospitality, as he matches up members with guests in need of a meal.

Music is core to both Hilly and Karen in the expression of their spirituality. Both have added musical performances to shul functions and programs along with their children, Gavi, Ariella, Pnina and Shlomo. Karen has also served as one of the shul's Girl Scout leaders, and is behind the scenes to shop, prepare, and clean up from all manner of shul events.

We are thrilled to honor the Zeitlins who have done so much to help turn Tiferes Yisroel's vision of being a warm, open and inviting shul into a beautiful reality.

CHAVERIM "A good friend," Pirkei Avos 2:9

Chaverim is a group of volunteers who provide a helping hand for car and home lockouts, flat tires, dead batteries, and more. Chaverim began when a group of individuals recognized the community's need for an organization that people could turn to in difficult times. These individuals committed themselves to volunteering their time, skills, resources, and expertise to help their community in times of need.

Since Chaverim began in January 2007, they have received over 3,000 phone calls – and are now averaging 300 calls a month, about 10-20 calls per day. As one satisfied user of their services said, "Chaverim is there when you need them, and they were fast and happy to help."

ZVI ZEITLIN, Distinguished Professor of Violin, Eastman School of Music
Professor Zvi Zeitlin, father of our honoree, Hillel, was born in Belarus and raised in Israel. He has concertized and made solo appearances with orchestras worldwide, recorded for various record labels, and published many articles while teaching master classes at most major schools in the United States and around the world. Professor Zeitlin's students occupy concertmasterships in many foremost orchestras, hold important positions in universities and music schools worldwide, and are major prizewinners in international and regional competitions.
